

POLICE WILL MAKE EFFORT

To Locate Miss Florence
Flinchbaugh.

WORTHINGTON FAILED

To Leave His Family Well Provided For.

Had a Large Amount of Money
When He Left Town, Forgot to Pay His Bills.

The relatives of Miss Florence Flinchbaugh, whose sensational elopement with Captain of Police Worthington has been the talk of the town, have asked the police to locate the girl and return her to this city.

When a city official notified the relatives of the girl some time ago that unless the attentions of the captain ceased trouble would follow he was laughed at and told the captain was a good friend of the family. Now the same persons are nearly frantic over the disappearance of the girl and they are willing to adopt any means that will bring her back.

It has been learned that Worthington had a considerable amount of money with him at the time and it is believed that the elopement had been planned for some time. A large number of unpaid bills given further credence to this theory.

The officer also failed to leave his family well provided for.

A bold and burglar had a narrow escape from being punctured by leaden pellets after midnight last night. The man was endeavoring to raise a window when Miss Aurel Glimpse was awakened. The young lady realized that some one was trying to get into the house and picking up a revolver started on a tour of investigation.

The burglar saw her as she came down stairs and left hurriedly while the brave young woman raised the window in the hopes of getting a shot at him.

The police were called but the intruder had left the vicinity.

Jose Taylor, a drunk was arrested yesterday morning on North Main st. by officers Cusick and Babcock. He was fined $5 last night by the mayor.
